Certification of Translation Accuracy

I do hereby verify and confirm that ITC Traductions Canada has provided a true and accurate delivery for the following item(s):

Diplome-dhematologie-Original

This project was completed by ITC Traductions Canada, a professional language agency located in Canada.

It is compliant with the requirements of the ISO 17100:2015 Translation Services standard that calls for distinct translation and revision phases carried out by two separate linguists.

The linguists involved are technically-trained, native-speaking linguists, whose profiles are also compliant with the requirements of the ISO 17100:2015 standard.
